

Christoph Dieng
Member of the Managing Board

NORD/LB Norddeutsche Landesbank – Girozentrale –

Christoph Dieng, born in 1967 in Bad Schussenried, has been a member of the Managing Board of Norddeutsche Landesbank (NORD/LB) in Hanover since 3 February 2017. As Chief Risk Officer (CRO), he is responsible for credit risk management, special credit & valuation, risk controlling, research, compliance, business management & operations and program NORD/LB 2024. In addition, he is responsible for the Mecklenburg-Vorpommern State Development Institute and for Relationships Mecklenburg-Vorpommern and is Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Nord/LB Covered Bond Bank in Luxembourg.

Before joining NORD/LB, Dieng worked with Deutsche Bank for 14 years. Between 1993 and 1998 he worked in the corporate finance and corporate customers segments at the bank's offices in New York and Munich, before moving to the risk management segment of the bank in 1999. There, he held various management positions in London, Geneva and Frankfurt - most recently European Head of Credit Risk Management for Global Corporate and Institutions.

Education and professional career
from	NORD/LB:
2017 to present	Member of the Managing Board
2007 to present	Chief Credit Risk Officer with additional responsibility for other business segments and within the Group
2000 – 2007	Deutsche Bank AG: Management positions in credit risk management in London, Geneva and Frankfurt
1993 - 1999	Senior Corporate Customer Account Manager and Credit Risk Analyst for airlines, with global industry responsibility Junior Corporate Customers Account Manager in New York Trainee programme at German offices and in Singapore
1989 - 1993	Business economics degree in Pforzheim
1986 - 1988	Banking apprenticeship with Hypovereinsbank AG in Ulm